

GREG GAST NAMED DELAWARE VALLEY HR CONSULTANT OF THE YEAR

Kudos to Greg Gast, PROXUS Principal who was named HR Consultant of the Year by the Delaware Valley HR Person of the Year Award which is a joint effort between six regional Society of the Human Resource Management (SHRM) chapters. Their 10th Anniversary Gala was held on May 13th at the Hyatt Regency at Penn's Landing and was attended by more than 300 people.

Greg is the first to win the HR Consultant of the Year award, as it was a new category in 2010, and defined as a self-employed individual or an individual working or owner of their own HR consulting business with at least five years of experience. According to Gast, "There are many aspects about the Human Resources profession that I value. I like the ability to be involved in so many aspects of organizational life, but what I have particularly come to appreciate over the years is the opportunity to do great things for people everyday."

Other honorees were recognized in the following categories: HR Person of the Year with 1-500 employees, and respectively for 501-2,000 employees and for 2,001 or more employees, as well as HR Rising Star of the Year. Judging for these awards was conducted by select HR professionals from the Delaware Valley. The Delaware Valley HR Person of the Year Award was developed to celebrate the Human Resources industry and to recognize those who exemplify outstanding achievement within the 5,000+ who make up the local HR community.

"We have the chance to do great things everyday. So as HR professionals, I encourage you and challenge you – do something great – everyday," adds Gast.
