Emerson Personnel Group and PROXUS Partner to Deliver Enhanced Solutions for Hiring HR Professionals

Fort Washington, PA - June 30, 2008 -- Emerson HR Group, a division of Emerson Personnel Group (EPG), Cherry Hill, a leading recruitment and staffing firm with over 35 years of industry experience and PROXUS, Fort Washington, a leading provider of human resource, payroll and benefits services, have announced the formation of a partnership designed to help companies find high-performing HR professionals on a direct hire or interim basis.

By combining the recruitment process efficiency of EPG with the in-depth HR knowledge of PROXUS, companies throughout the Delaware Valley will significantly benefit from their proven experience. Their combined knowledge and expertise in the area of custom fitting the right candidate to each company's corporate philosophy is unmatched in the recruiting industry.

Area HR professional, Craig Kreisler, HR Director, Association Headquarters, Inc., Mount Laurel, NJ was excited to hear about the recent EPG and PROXUS partnership. "Both companies have sterling reputations and are very well known throughout the region's HR community. This strategic alliance stands only to better serve both HR professionals and those companies searching for top HR talent," adds Kreisler.

The HR staffing services offered as a result of this new partnership will be exclusive to South Jersey-based EPG. Multi-level HR positions encompassing HR Managers and Directors, to Benefits Coordinators and HR Assistants will be available for project-based work, interim assignments as well as direct hires.
